

How can the Sinclair Broadcast Group be allowed to express such a politicized opinion as "factual news" so close to election day? The negative portrayal of John Kerry in "Stolen Honor" is essentially a political commercial hoping to sway last minute votes. I'm sure that the Sinclair Broadcast Group is not planning to show "Fahrenheit 911" as an equal time rebuttal to Mr Bush's record.

As I thought I understood it, the Sinclair Broadcast Group should be using our "free" public airwaves to serve the public interest in an unbiased, truthful manner. This does not appear to me to be to be in keeping of the principals that I, as a veteran, fought for.

You as the FCC Commissioners, should attend to this matter IMMEDIATELY with the same ferocity that you showed to the despicable Janet Jackson issue. That incident was in poor taste, but essentially harmless. This incident has the potential to undermine some basic principals that make this country great.

Please exercise your authority to do the right thing, not the partisan one...

Thanks you
